Former president Calvin Coolidge was asked what he considered to be the outstanding feature of his administration. His answer was: "The ability to mind my own business." Much of the life of faith consists of leaving things alone. "Take it to the Lord and leave it there." T. J. Bach

FULLER SEMINARY BANQUET - will be held in the Pasadena Athletic Club ballroom (Green and Los Robles) at 7:00 p.m., Friday, April 22. The theme is Holiday for Spring. 145 N. Oakland will be converted into a nursery for youngsters. Miss Henrietta Mears' topic is "Youth needs God." Those needing financial assistance be sure to see Dr. Lindsell.

SENIOR PICNIC - SENIORS - among all your other activities at the end of the term, remember to sandwich in the SENIOR PICNIC, May 2 at 5:30 p.m., Washington Park, corner El Molino and Washington. Bring your own lunch--we'll provide the coffee.

SENIORS - The Rev. Frank Hughes of the Presbyterian Minister's Fund has invited all Seniors and their wives to be his guests at the annual Alumni-Senior Luncheon on Wednesday, May 18. The luncheon will be held at Eaton's Santa Anita Restaurant, 1150 W. Colorado, Arcadia; the hour is 11:45 a.m. Will you please sign on the list at the Reception Desk for this Luncheon as it is necessary for Mr. Hughes to know how many reservations to make. Do it TODAY!

FOLDERS AVAILABLE - Baccalaureate, Inauguration, and Commencement activity folders are available at the Reception Desk. If you can use them advantageously in your local church, please help yourself. (Mailing will be made to churches as listed on the practical work cards from the Business Office.)

WRITE YOUR SENATOR regarding the bill pending before Senate; see bulletin board news article.

JUNIORS - There will be no class meeting as was scheduled for 6:15 a.m. on Wednesday. We will notify you of the next time.

NO FAMILY NIGHT this week. Save your money for the Banquet Friday night.

PRESBYTERIAN FELLOWSHIP meets Friday, 1:15 p.m., Room 303 - Rev. Harry O. Dunlop of Long Beach is the speaker.

THESIS REMINDER - The Library requires two copies of all theses, the original and the first carbon. These should both be on approved thesis paper, and should not be punched. Each copy should be accompanied by two blank sheets of thesis paper for fly leaves and an approval form (see Miss Ashley) signed by the faculty advisor and the second faculty reader, if any. Theses are first presented to the faculty advisor and are channeled to the Library by him after final grading.

INSURANCE FOR MINISTERS - Mr. Frank Hughes of the PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER'S FUND will be at 145 N. Oakland at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday, April 19, to talk with all interested students about ministerial life insurance. The Seminary highly recommends that all single men attend this session. No necessity is laid on anyone to purchase insurance, but every man should seriously consider an insurance program at as early a date as possible. See you at Carey House, 6:15 o'clock, Tuesday night. Dean Harold Lindsell.

Also, Mr. Hughes be in Room C on Wednesday, first and second hours. He will entertain all questions relevant to insurance coverage at that time. He will also be available for individual interviews by special appointment. This is an excellent opportunity to get the insurance facts every minister should know from a qualified expert in the field. D. H.

PRACTICAL WORK - Someday soon Rev. Robert Kelley of the Glendale Presbyterian Church would like to interview some Presbyterian men who may be interested in working into their program this fall in their high school dept. They also need workers for their summer program in this dept. If interested see Mr. Cox who will arrange a date suitable for you to talk with Rev. Kelley.

CHAPEL Tues.: Dr. Charles E. Fuller; Wed.: Prayer Day, divided; class elections
